Preliminary Statement on Police Involved Shooting – 9400 Block of South Justine

On July 11th at approximately 11:03 pm. Officers were responding to a call of shots fired, when they observed several subjects matching the description of possible offenders near 95th and Wood. The Officers attempted to conduct a street stop at which time one of the subjects turned toward the Officers while pointing a handgun at them. Fearing for his life, one Officer fired his duty weapon striking the offender. The offender's handgun was recovered from his person. The offender was transported to Christ Hospital by CFD Ambulance and was later pronounced dead. The remaining subjects fled and have not been located. The matter remains under investigation and all further inquiries can be directed to the Independent Police Review Authority at 312-446-3298.
